

PM: 40

Time: 2 hrs.

Q1. (a) Discuss the role of newspapers to the spread of Indian nationalism during the second half of the 19th century.

Q1. (a) Discuss the role of newspapers to the spread of Indian nationalism during the second half of the 19th century.

(b) Why did Lord Curzon decided to partitioned Bengal in 1905?

Q2. (b) Why did Lord Curzon decided to partitioned Bengal in 1905?

(c) Discuss the circumstances leading to the non-cooperation movement in India.

Q3. (c) Discuss the circumstances leading to the non-cooperation movement in India.

(d) What were the reasons behind the rise of communalism in India?

Q4. (d) What were the reasons behind the rise of communalism in India?

(e) Assess the importance of Quit India movement.

Q5. (e) Assess the importance of Quit India movement.

(f) Was the partition of India inevitable?

Q6. (f) Was the partition of India inevitable?